THE HORSE HAD SENSE

He Saved Another From Going Over a Bluff.

THE MAN COULD NOT BE FOUND

An Incident Near the Old Reservoir—The Police Called to Search For a Man Who Had Fallen 100 Feet, But Only Found His Frightened Team—Claimed, When Found, That He Had Been Robbed.

Chief Gill, Officers Jennings and Earle, Patrolman McMillen and a party of citizens searched diligently on Saturday night for what they believed was the bruised and bleeding remains of a man who had fallen over the bluff, and when Sunday came went home with the thought that so great a mystery had never yet been known in the city.

It was not 9 o'clock when a man rode out of the city in a buggy hauled by one horse, while another was tied to the rear of the vehicle by a stout halter. When on the Calcutta road the driver, for some unknown reason, missed the way, and driving about the lower reservoir had an experience which resulted in a marvelous escape from death or serious injury, and but for the action of the lead horse would have cost him his team.

Chief Gill received a telephone message announcing that a man had fallen over the bluff, and sending in an alarm for the patrol he hastily called Officers Earle and Jennings to aid him in the search. They went to a point below the reservoir, and there found a peculiar condition of affairs. One horse had slipped over the bluff, and would have fallen perhaps 100 feet, dragging the buggy with him, had not the animal tied to the vehicle braced his front feet, and, with every muscle strained, pulled the other way. The head of the horse and a great part of its body was hanging over, but the other animal was stubborn and the halter strong, so his life was saved. Ropes were secured and, with the assistance of persons living in the vicinity, the horses were rescued. Then the police began to search for the man. They procured lanterns, and went all over the hillside, leaving no spot where his body might have lodged without a close inspection. The fall is so great, and the cliff so dangerous that they expected to find a dead man, but at midnight they had made no discovery, and they had found nothing, and deciding to wait for daylight they returned to city hall.

Yesterday morning the mystery was explained when a sleepy looking man with a few scratches on his face walked into the mayor's office, and asked for his horses. He gave his name as Charles Wilson, and said he lived on a farm just over the line in Pennsylvania. He said he had been knocked down, and robbed and had fallen over the cliff, and that was all he knew about it until he turned up at Laughlin's pottery, asking the watchman for a match. He claimed he had been robbed of $10, but Chief Gill did not take kindly to the story, and questioned him closely, but that is all he would say. He wanted his horses, and after getting them went home. If he fell over the cliff he had a narrow escape, for at that point the height is sufficient to kill any man, but the absence of cuts and bruises, the direct result of such a fall, makes the police think of some other story, in which whisky plays a prominent part.

TWO BADLY INJURED.

The Disastrous Ending of a Sunday Ride.

Yesterday afternoon the son of Commissioner McIntosh went driving in St. Clair township with Miss Irwin and Miss Tatzenhorst, and the horses ran away the young women being badly injured.

They were driving down a hill near the home of Squire Moore, in St. Clair township, when the neck yoke broke, and the horses became unmanageable. Young McIntosh attempted to stop them, and leaning over the dash was thrown into the road. With the lines loose the horses dashed down the hill at high speed throwing Miss Irwin out, and later depositing the other lady in the road. The team ran until the buggy was mashed to pieces, and was eventually caught by parties in the vicinity. McIntosh lost no time when he arose in following the outfit, and soon had assistance in making the injured ones as comfortable as possible. Miss Tatzenhorst had all the fingers on her left hand dislocated and a big cut in her right side. She was taken home, and Miss Irwin transferred to the residence of Doctor Lemon. There she was found to be in a precarious condition, and did not recover consciousness until late in the evening.

Then she suffered so severely that the physician was compelled to resort to opiates. She was no better this morning, and it is feared she has sustained internal injuries from which she cannot recover. McIntosh was cut and bruised, but he would not allow his own wounds to be dressed until after the young women had been cared for.

All the parties are well known in this city, and the news of the sad accident will be heard with sorrow by their many friends. The father of Miss Tatzenhorst is a well known milkman, and he stated today that his daughter would recover, but Miss Irwin was in a dangerous condition.

WASHED THE TRACK.

Rain and Sand Caused Delay on the Electric Line.

The heavy rain last night washed sand on the street car line at the electric light plant in Wellsville, and delayed cars while motormen shoveled off the track. At Walker's for a distance of 20 feet there was enough sand to delay traffic until five cars were bunched there. After the motormen had cleared the rails, and passengers were hoping they would soon reach their destinations, a car jumped the track at the Horn switch, and four cars were bunched on Sixth street. With ability only born of long experience the motormen got another start, but the delay badly injured the schedule for the remainder of the night.

A heavily-loaded car attempting to climb the Washington hill yesterday afternoon blew out a plug, and when the damage was repaired the motorman found he had to return to Second street for another start.

RIOTOUS TERRY.

He Slapped Small Boys and Struck a Woman.

Terry Carmon, whose name is not known in police court, was drunk on Saturday night, and bought a quantity of popcorn from Ben Little, Jr. When the boy demanded payment Terry slapped him, and began strewing the corn on the pavement. Mrs. Fowler, of Sixth street, chanced to pass that way, and Carmon struck her savagely. Chief Gill chased the youth through that part of the city, and at length found him in Dew Drop alley. He was taken down, declaring his innocence, but today got $20.20 and will go to the workhouse if he can't pay. The authorities have no use for the regulars.

IT WAS TOO HOT TO SLEEP.

But the Solicitor Lost His Chickens Just the Same.

Solicitor Clark has been tenderly rearing a brood of spring chickens for several weeks and spending his spare moments in thinking how well they would taste. Last night it was far too hot for him to sleep, and he sat in a chair taking advantage of every breath of air, and thinking of those chickens. But he was doomed to disappointment, for a thief came in the night, and took them away, leaving only one old rooster and an equally disreputable appearing old hen in the coop.

WENT OVER THE HILL.

A Wheelman Injured By Some Selfish Driver.

John McAllister, a well known wheelman of the city, rode to Beaver Falls yesterday, and on the way was forced over the hill by a farmer driving along the road. The hill was rocky, and McAllister could not ride fast, but the farmer was going at good speed, and pressed him at a narrow place so closely that he had to turn his wheel over the bank or be run down. He sustained a number of scratches and bruises.

A GOOD WEEK.

Business Continues to Increase at the Freight Depot.

The shipping platform at the freight depot is a busy place just now, and the increase in business has necessitated the employment of another man. John Rapp was given the position, and is at work today. Last week was not as good as some weeks when the McKinley tariff was in force, but it was much better than any during the dull season the first few months of the year. May the shipments increase.

A FEW CASES.

The Squires Are Not Bothered With Big Business.

In the court of Squire Rose this morning judgment was given Joseph Turnbull for $28.80, and an execution was issued. The case was against L. Esterline, but the constable could find nothing upon which to levy.

The suit of light company against F. A. Rife will have to rest a few days for it was postponed by Squire Rose this morning.

IN BROAD DAYLIGHT

A Burglar Went Through a Washington Street House.

THE FAMILY WERE AT CHURCH

But There Were People in the Other Half of the Building—The Boldest Attempt at Robbery Heard in Many Months—He Found No Money and Went Away.

Perhaps the boldest attempt at robbery in the history of the city occurred yesterday morning on Washington street, but the bad man got nothing for his pains.

Thomas Newman, an employee of the Armour company, lives in one half of Doctor Jackman's residence, and yesterday morning the family went to church, with the exception of Leslie Trump, who rooms there, but he heard nothing. Some time during the morning the bad man walked to a window at the rear of the house, and in plain sight of several neighbors had they chanced to be near, cut the wire screen close to the frame. The cellar door nearby was wide open but the burglar could not have reached the interior of the house from there, and wisely chose the window. After entering he went through all the drawers and cupboards in the house, throwing articles of wearing apparel on the floor and evidently making a systematic search. He was probably after money, as he searched carefully in every part of the house where money could have been secreted, but was disappointed. Fortunately there was no money under that roof, Mr. Newman luckily taking his pocketbook with him, something unusual, as burglars were never thought of, and large sums of money were often left at the mercy of intruders. Nothing of value was missing and the only damage was the screen and the time consumed in rearranging the dresses. The window is in plain view of several houses in the vicinity, and the burglar could have been seen had any one chanced to be near.

FIERCE BLOODHOUNDS.

What is In Store For Workhouse Convicts Who Run Away.

This city has been a good patron of the Canton workhouse since the contract was made, and several luckless creatures from here are even now serving sentences by quarrying stone or swinging a little hammer. Those who are left in town and in danger of receiving a sentence might remember with profit that several prisoners have recently escaped from the works, and Superintendent Pontius has obtained a pair of hungry bloodhounds to use in cases of emergency. The dogs do not amount to much as bloodthirsty beasts, nor do they frighten the prisoners, for two more ran away last week.

STILL HE WAITS.

A Traveler Who Had Trouble With His Mail.

A commercial traveler was here a few days ago, and, stopping at the Exchange Hotel, told the clerk to forward his mail to New Brighton. When he reached that place there was no mail, and he came here to inquire, since the letters contained his route for the next few weeks and a check. Surprised at seeing the hotel clerk, he went to the postoffice, and found that the mail had been sent to his home. He telegraphed there, but it had not yet arrived, and he is now swearing that he will never have mail forwarded again while he waits for it to come.

WANTS HER STELLA.

The Grand-Mother of the Brookes Girl Takes a Hand.

The grand-mother of Stella Brookes, one of the three girls whose escapades caused some excitement and who were finally taken to the reform school, was at city hall this morning.

The old lady had forgiven Estella, and wanted the authorities to have her returned to her home. Chief Gill, after a conference, telephoned to Judge Young. The judge said Estella would stay where she is. Her grand-mother said she guessed not and left city hall, with the parting reminder that Estella was too old for the reform school and she would find a way to get her out.

BEER IN THE WOODS.

Several Small Rows Made Up the Result.

A number of parties from the city drove to the country yesterday, taking with them enough beer to make them forget the hot weather and the cares of everyday life. One crowd were on the hillside near Smith's Ferry when the farmer who owns the land drove them off, and they crossed the river. Two other parties had secluded spots on the Lisbon road, and a cool hollow not more than a hundred feet from the street car line afforded a safe retreat for another. The first and the last named parties engaged in fights of more or less importance before they came home.

BOTT WAS BEATEN.

The Liverpool Boy Raced Hard and Won a Place.

Billy Bott did not win the Cleveland-Pittsburg road race on Saturday, but he got thirteenth place and a time medal after a hard ride. No warm nourishment was prepared for him at Youngstown, and he was in poor condition when he reached Rochester. There he was paced by Will Rex, who compelled the plucky rider to leave his wheel and rest by the wayside. It was a long ride and a hard ride, and Bott would have finished nearer the head of the list had he been properly cared for. He did very well, however, for he was riding in the fastest kind of company.

NO FREIGHT.

Street Car Motormen Will Not Be Bothered on Saturday Evenings.

Superintendent Andrews has issued an order prohibiting the handling of freight by motormen on Saturday after 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The arrangement was made last week, but all the motormen did not get the word on Saturday evening, and some freight was carried. The order will become operative next Saturday evening, and business men will generally know of the new arrangement, and there will be no delay. Some excitement was caused on Saturday evening by the rumor that the street railway officials had declared against freight for all time.

WILL SELL A MAD STONE.

One Result of Sensational Stories of Mad Dogs.

The editor of the Terre Haute Exposition has been reading the imaginative stories of local correspondents and has sent to this office a marked copy of his paper containing the announcement that he has a mad stone and wants to sell it. He claims it will cure snake and dog bites, and he has been offered $500 for it in cash. Doubtless he imagines East Liverpool to be filled with wild, snarling dogs, who run about the streets biting people who are so foolish as to think a piece of rock will save their lives.

MORE BRIDGES.

One For Rochester and Another For Sewickley.

Proposed bridges over the Ohio now number three between this city and Pittsburgh, the last being one to connect Rochester and Monaca. Sewickley wants one and it is possible that the county will build it there, but the project at Rochester is a matter of private enterprise. A meeting will be held tonight, at which the project will either be carried on with a great deal more energy than in the past or will be dropped without further action. A company is anxious to have aid from the county, and may get it.

MORE SALOONS.

Two Are Said to Be Certainties in the Near Future.

It is said that two saloons will soon be added to the list in this city. One will be located on the lower end of Fourth street and the other is booked for West Market. During the hard times the number of saloons was sensibly decreased, but when the potteries started after the strike they began to appear again. Since January there has been another period of suspension, but the contemplated opening of new saloons shows a revival in business.

DAMAGED THE ICE PLANT.

There Was a Rush of Water and Rubbish.

When the storm was at its height last night and Carpenter run was filled to overflowing, a rush of water and rubbish swept away a portion of the ice plant on the upper side. A similar accident occurred some time ago, but the damage was repaired, and now the repairs are gone. The amount of garbage floated down the stream was marvelous, and showed the district above had been given a thorough cleaning.

HOW THEY REST.

Law Offices Are All Closed For a Vacation.

The vacation of the attorneys began today, and will continue until every hour decided upon at the meeting last week has been passed through. All the law offices in town were closed for business, and at a number the doors were locked without a sign of anyone near. There will be no legal business during the entire vacation, and clients must wait a few weeks before they can be accommodated.

ONE LONG BLACK MARK

MADE UP WINTERGILL'S HURTS

Although He Was Struck by a Passenger Train and Knocked Over the Embankment—He Liked Doctor Ogden So Well That He Came Back at a Late Hour.

John Wintergill, an individual well known to many people in the city, was very near to death Saturday night, escaping only by a miracle and then celebrating in the usual manner.

Wintergill is a fisherman, and when summer comes he always leaves the hot town for some point near the upper end of Line island, where he establishes a camp and earns his daily bread. This year was no exception, and Wintergill has been there long enough to feel the necessity of coming to town. He started to return Saturday afternoon, and by evening had reached a point near the flint mill. He was walking on the track, but hearing the east bound passenger whistle, had sufficient sense to step to one side. He failed to move far enough away, and the engineer sounded another warning, but it had no effect on Wintergill, and he was struck in the back by the front of the engine. The train was stopped, and the trainmen hastened to where the injured man lay at the bottom of the hill. They expected to see him dead or at least badly injured, and were surprised to learn that only a little blood and a few bruises made up his injuries. He was taken on board the train and transported to Cook's Ferry, where he was transferred to another train and brought to the city. Agent Hill took him to Doctor Ogden, who found a big bruise on his back and a small cut on his arm. They were attended to, and the agent put him on the street car. Wintergill having expressed a desire to return to his camp. He changed his mind, for near midnight he again called on the doctor, this time under the influence of liquor. There is no danger of internal injuries, although Wintergill is doubtless a sore man today.

AUGHENBAUGH WON.

He Beat Banker, the Famous, at Greensburg.

At the bicycle races in Greensburg, Pa., last Saturday, Aughenbaugh and Irons, two members of the team who have been training at the East End track and have many friends in this city, made themselves famous. Aughenbaugh surprised the audience and Banker, the crack racer, by covering the one mile open in one of the most magnificent spurts ever seen on a race track. Bert Irons went against the track record of 1:05 and cut it down to the mile flat. Hale and Aughenbaugh are entered in the Steubenville races next month.

AN ARREST THREATENED

A Brutal Father Caused Indignation Among Neighbors.

Residents of Sixth street complain because the father of a child who is suffering from typhoid fever brutally abused it last night. They claim the man was drunk, and hurt the child severely. Its feeble cries could be heard on the street, and indignation ran high. Had an officer been in the vicinity there would have been one more case for the mayor to consider. If the offense is repeated the brutal father will be handed over to the authorities or treated to a dose of private punishment.

MASHED A WAGON.

Groceries Were Scattered Far and Wide by a Runaway.

The horse drawing the wagon of W. J. Harvey was standing in Huston addition at 3:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon when a horse owned by McGhie & Moore refused to make friends, and bit it. In an instant the animals darted down the street by the china works, and the wagon collided with a fire plug, smashing the vehicle but not injuring the horse. Groceries were scattered liberally about the immediate vicinity.

An Affair of Honor.

A vast crowd of small boys were attracted to Dew Drop alley the other night by the apparent intentions of Freddy Bloor and Frank Spivey to settle "an affair of honor." But the fight failed to materialize, and the youthful contingent was disgusted, one of them remarking that he had a notion to "lick them both himself."

Will Dance Tonight.

A party of young people from this city will go to Phillisee island tonight to attend a dance given by the Phillisee club. The club is arranging to hold dances every two weeks at the island during the fall.

NEW HOLMES VICTIMS.

Suspected of Making Away With a Mother and Child.

THEY SUDDENLY DISAPPEAR.

The Husband of the Woman Discovered That Holmes and His Wife Were Too Intimate—An Explosion Injures Searchers of Holmes' Chicago House.

CHICAGO, July 22.—To the long list of murders and other crimes directly traceable to the arch-fiend, H. H. Holmes, must now be added the mysterious disappearance of Mrs. I. L. Conner and her 12-year-old daughter, with a reasonable certainty that they have been disposed of in the same manner in which the rest of his victims met their death. Mrs. Conner and her children were last seen in the company of Holmes in this city in 1893. Since then all trace of them has been lost and the shrewdest of detectives who, at the instigation of the woman's family, have been working on the case, are now of the opinion that the finding of their bodies is the only possible solution of the mystery. There are circumstances which, while at first seemingly susceptible of explanation, now point in the direction of another double murder at the hands of the greatest villain of modern times.

Mrs. Conner came originally from Davenport, Iowa, where she was married to I. L. Conner, a jeweler, nearly 15 years ago, probably in 1880, when she was about 18, though the exact time is unknown. To them a child was born, and in 1889 Conner and his wife and girl, then 7 or 8 years old, came to Chicago. Holmes at that time was just beginning to frame the swindles for which he later became notorious, and had started a drug and jewelry store in Englewood. Conner went to work for Holmes and moved his family into a flat over the store.

It was not long after this until Conner became aware that the relations between his wife and Holmes were not of a nature consistent with the law of society. Before long Mrs. Conner and the child disappeared, and no trace of them has since been found.

While the detectives were searching the house where Holmes lived, Saturday, a mysterious gas tank was found. One of the workmen lit a match. An explosion ensued, badly jarring the building and throwing the men in the cellar violently to the ground. Three of them were burned, but none of them received serious injury. Timothy Mure was seriously injured, the face and hands and had to be sent home. The others were able to continue their work. More of Minnie Williams' effects and some bones were found.

It is the intention of the Chicago police to make every effort to have H. H. Holmes, the insurance swindler, brought here to answer the charge of having murdered the Williams sisters. The local officers are convinced that the murder of the Williams girls was the first committed by Holmes, and they argue that in consequence he should be required to stand trial for it. They insist that they will be able to produce evidence that he did murder the sisters.

Workmen Caught by a Shell Game. WILLIAMSPORT, July 22.—Several shell game fakirs put up their tables near the pay office of the Richards colliery and succeeded in fleecing the mine workers out of several hundred dollars before their games were interrupted. The men had to pass the fakirs while returning home just after having received their pay and were consequently flush.

Attempt to Lynch an Umpire. QUINCY, Ill., July 22.—After the baseball game Sunday the crowd made an attempt to lynch Umpire Frank Heath of Pontiac, Ill., and was only prevented by the police and sheriff, the latter being backed up by a posse. It was claimed that the umpire had robbed Quincy of two games. He was roughly handled before the officers could get him away from the crowd.

Trouble Between Stockraisers. BAWLINS, Wyo., July 22.—The trouble between the cattle and sheep men in Routt county, Col., is not yet settled by any means. The cattlemen are determined to prevent the sheep from grazing on through the summer range in the mountain foothills, while the sheepmen are just as determined to occupy their old ranges.

Williamsport Sued for $15,000. WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., July 22.—John Glace, husband of Alice Glace, who was killed by a trolley car on the evening of July 4, has entered suit against the city for $15,000 damages. The accident was caused by a stone pile, upon which, contrary to a city ordinance, there was no danger signal.

Deathwatch on Two Murderers. WASHINGTON, July 22.—The deathwatch has been placed on Joseph A. Bean and Thomas J. Taylor, who are to be hung here on Friday next, the former for the murder of his stepdaughter, and the latter for the murder of his wife.

BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE.

The Services the Last Day of the Convention Very Impressive.

BALTIMORE, July 22.—The service Sabbath morning—the beginning of the last day of the fifth annual international convention of the Baptist Young Peoples' Union of America—was particularly impressive. Delegates and visitors were present in great numbers in the mammoth tent and leavetakings were begun. The heat was intense.

The general prayer and praise service commenced at 8:30, and was led by Rev. W. B. Riley of Chicago. The topic was "Faith—Inspired Living." At 10 o'clock there was an adjournment to church service—the pulpit of every Evangelical church in Baltimore being occupied by a Baptist preacher.

In the afternoon there was a second praise and prayer service. Rev. B. E. Lovett of Davenport, Ia., being the leader. At the close of the beautiful exercises Mr. Joshua Levering was invited to preside, and he presented Rev. F. H. Kerfoot, D. D., of Louisville, Ky., who delivered an address, "The Saloon and the Present Crisis in Good Government." This was followed by the convention sermon, which was preached by Rev. P. S. Henson, D. D., of Chicago. "Waiting on God," an afternoon meeting, was led by Rev. John Gordon, D. D., of Philadelphia.

During this afternoon service in the great tent there was a "junior rally," in the Fuller Memorial Baptist church, conducted by Mr. Boston W. Smith of Minneapolis.

At night President Chapman read an address and consecration services were held.

SOME MORE BRECKENRIDGES.

Prominent American Statesmen Arrested in a London Demi Monde Resort.

LONDON, July 22.—It has developed that a police raid was made upon the Palace club the past week. A number of prominent Americans were caught in the raid. The club is one of several fashionable night clubs in London where the demi monde resort. It opens at midnight and closes at 6 a. m. Late the Palace has been very riotous.

The club is elegantly appointed, having 35 men servants and a band playing nightly. A hundred men and women, all in evening dress, were captured. Among them were a United States senator, a congressman, a prominent law official of an eastern state and an American police official. All save the proprietor and servants of the club were released.

Campos Saved the Day.

HAVANA, July 22.—Further details are being constantly coming to light concerning the action between the insurgent and the column of Marshal Martinez de Campos, between Manzanillo and Bayamo, on July 11. The more that is known of the action the more it is seen that the captain general and his forces were in a position of extreme peril, and that it was only by the personal leadership and military skill of Marshal de Campos himself that the day was saved and made an especially glorious action for the Spanish army.

Four Men Killed by a Train.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., July 22.—Four men have been instantly killed while crossing the Fitchburg railroad track about two miles from this place. A party of six men were riding in a two-seated covered carriage. They were returning from North Adams to Bennington and were struck by a westbound express. The killed were Oliver Dudley, Nelson Trudeau, Peter Rocke and Joseph Trayan.

Suffering of Negro Colonists.

EL PASO, Tex., July 22.—These dispatches two months ago told a story of suffering of negro colonists in the state of Chihuahua, Mexico, as related by two negroes from Alabama who had escaped. The United States government asked that the Mexican authorities investigate the report, and a Mexican commission has arrived at Mampiki, authorized to proceed to the colony and investigate.

The Settlers Must Pay Up.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The district land offices in those parts of Kansas and Nebraska where parts of the former Otoe and Missouri Indian reservations are located, have been instructed to inform the purchasers of these lands that the balances due by them must be paid within 90 days, or their entries will be canceled.

Brisk Times at Steelton.

HARRISBURG, July 22.—Business steel works at Steelton today is now. The payrolls for two weeks. Saturday amounted to almost $92,000. It is the first pay under the increase which went into effect June 15.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. George Barlow, of Bank street, Huston's addition, a boy.

The water is so low in the river that even the little Olivette, the daily boat between this city and Steubenville, is tied up.

It is said that close to $100,000 will be spent by the bridge company in paying their employees while the structure is being built.

The attendance at the churches yesterday was unusually large for a hot Sunday, the congregations being so large as to excite comment in several instances.

A burly tramp with a red nose and a tomato can attempted to borrow a dime to help him reach a dying relative in Wheeling, from a number of people on Sixth street last night.

The Floating Bethel which was moored here during last fall and winter has moved to Toronto, but the Tribune of that place says the evangelists are not doing much good.

The heat in the kiln sheds of some of the potteries was intense today, but no prostrations were reported. Some kilnmen wisely refrained from taking the risk, much as they needed the work.

The new glost kiln at the West End pottery will be fired this evening. The capacity is fully double that of the old glost kiln. The pottery is on full handed in every department, and is turning out dandy nice ware.

A number of new business houses are said to be certainities for the near future, among them being a department store where all things are sold. A change of location on the part of a well known local concern is also promised.

Mrs. Smith, a returned missionary from Japan, lectured to a large audience at the Christian church on Saturday evening. Her subject was the advancement of woman, and she dealt with it in a clear, straightforward manner.

Charley Hall is planning for a bicycle trip which will take him over many miles of country road in Indiana. If he can arrange matters he will spend two weeks or more in the neighboring state, using his wheel as the only means of travel.

It is related that an officer ordered a butcher to muzzle his dog, and the butcher told him that the dog was harmless, and if the authorities wanted to kill a dog that would not hurt anyone they could kill it, but he would not buy a muzzle.

The holiness campmeeting at Mahan's began yesterday, a large crowd being in attendance. Many East Liverpool people were present, as the facilities for transportation this year are much of an improvement over other meetings. No admission was charged, but the refreshment booths reaped a rich harvest. As far as could be learned no Liverpool enthusiasts have taken tents for the week.

When the wind storm came up on Saturday evening the streets were crowded and the people were blinded by the clouds of dust which chased each other through the Diamond and along the business streets. Laugable incidents by the dozen had no effect upon those who hastened homeward, and more than one was heard to say that it would not have been so annoying if the streets were cleaned occasionally. Another argument for a sweeper.

There is some talk of another club in the city, the object being to promote athletics. As one of the promoters told it to a reporter, the plan is to build a cheap house on the other side of the river, convenient to the city, where boxing bouts and prize fights, as well as other athletic events, can be pulled off. If the plan ever amounts to anything the amusements will be extended to the river, and the pleasure of boat racing will be revived. The promoters of the plan will organize a stock company if necessary.

An article published in the Crocker Journal, recommending the advertising of American potteries in the daily and weekly press, and the placing of ware direct from the pottery in the house of the consumer, is causing no little stir in the city. The plan is favored by some because the great point could be made of the replacing of a broken piece of decorated ware in a few days, while that could not be done if the article was imported. The adoption of the plan would cause a revolution in trade methods as they are at present employed.

The intense heat of yesterday and Saturday wilted the city, paralyzed business and caused no little suffering. At times the mercury in various thermometers looked weary and tired but it never ceased its steady purl toward the top, and not until long after the warmest hours on ordinary days did it decide to rest. As usual there are numerous statements of the hottest in the shade, but a little over 100 degrees seems to be the right thing. Had it not been for a pleasant breeze yesterday, life would have been unbearable. The weather bureau gives no promise of rain or cooler weather for several days.

A COOL RETREAT.

Has Every Desirable Facility for an Enjoyable Sojourn.

Persons desiring to combine recreation, entertainment, instruction and devotion with their summer outing will find Eagle Lake, on the Pennsylvania Lines, near Wassaw, Ind., the ideal spot. This pretty resort is the site of Winona Assembly and Summer School, the youngest of the Chautauqua assemblies. The grounds have been well and favorably known as Spring Fountain Park. They constitute about two hundred acres of romantic woodland, stretching nearly two miles along the eastern shore of Eagle lake, a beautiful sheet of water. The grounds have been plotted and pretty cottages constitute the summer homes of persons who find health and rest-giving recreation in invigorating air amid attractive surroundings. Some desirable cottage sites are yet obtainable. In addition to the portions laid out for building purposes, a fine park has been made. There is also a race track with overlooking amphitheater, furnishing splendid facilities for outdoor athletic sports. The large auditorium has a seating capacity of 3,000, and the several college halls are used for Assembly purposes. A good hotel, restaurant and supply stores furnish means of living at reasonable rates. A large fleet of row boats, with two steamers, will permit indulgence in boating, and persons fond of fishing may enjoy that pastime to satisfactory extent, as the lake teems with fish. The low tourist rates over the Pennsylvania Lines place these pleasures within easy reach. The rate will be in effect all season from ticket stations on these lines. In addition to the season tourist tickets, a low rate will also be in effect for round trip tickets, good fifteen days. Ticket agents of the Pennsylvania Lines will furnish them, and they may be obtained from agents of connecting lines. The Assembly department opens July 1 and continues four weeks, during which time prominent speakers will discuss live topics. During August there will be educational work under President John M. Coulter, of Lake Forest university, in connection with the assembly. For details regarding rates of fare, time of trains, etc., apply to nearest Pennsylvania Lines ticket agent, or address E. VAN DUSEN, Chief Assistant General Passenger Agent, Pittsburgh, Pa. Applications for information concerning the resort should be addressed to Secretary E. S. Scott, Eagle Lake, Ind.

LEWIS IS DISGUSTED

With American Potteries and America in General

SO HE DEPARTS FOR ENGLAND

And Leaves a Wife and Child To Battle For Themselves—Couldn't Stand Being Hussed By What He Styled An Inferior Workman.

When the 4 o'clock whistle blew Saturday afternoon Heber Lewis drew his pay at the office of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery and bled himself to the Cleveland & Pittsburgh station, where he purchased a ticket for Syracuse, N. Y. Then he boarded the 4:20 train and was soon outside the boundaries of the Buckeye State.

It so happened that a News Review reporter was on the same train. Lewis saw him and happened to remember that he owed two week's subscription, so he immediately expressed a desire to pay up, and after he had departed with the requisite amount of lucre, he remarked:

"I don't want to be owin' much. I paid you because I am going for good. I'm going to England and stay there. I got drunk or I wouldn't have started, but I'm tired of this country anyhow. There'll be a great hue and cry about me tomorrow I suppose." The reporter asked why there should be any unusual demonstration.

"Well, you see," and Lewis dropped his voice to a confidential whisper, "not a soul knew I was going to leave. My wife will be looking for me. I left my wife and child. She can get work enough to keep them. I came from England, and they didn't know where I was until I sent for them."

"I suppose you will send for them to go back to the old country," asked the scribe.

"Well I ain't so certain about that. I guess she can look for herself and kid. I'm tired of the bloomin' country. Do you know it ain't as good a country as England. Why the pottery business don't begin to touch it. You know I was working at the china works. I ought to be bench boss there. Oh, I'm too d—soft. Talk about competing with the old country. Why, great Scott, they never can the way they run things now. A skilled workman like me is no better than an unskilled man. There is no distinction between the kilnman in china and the one working in granite. If my boss is not a skilled man he is supposed to give orders anyhow. I can't bear to see wage go in the kiln that I know will come out wrong, but if I say anything they say I'm paid for what I do and not what I know. There's too many 'jacket men' in this country, and I'm getting away from them."

Lewis came here during the strike, and was employed as a kilnman at the china works. His wife lives in California Hollow, and is the woman who was in police court a few weeks ago because of a difficulty with Mrs. Malone.

A LIVERPOOL DIVORCE
Appeared In Court This Morning With The Old Charges.

LISBON, July 22.—Mrs. Charlotte Mounts, of East Liverpool, today asked a divorce from her husband, James B. Mounts. They were married in that city last December, and the woman asks separation because of failure to support and brutal treatment, several instances being cited. She wants her maiden name of Charlotte Watson restored.

Action to force the sale of the ground upon which stands the Rogers college buildings was commenced today. In September two years ago A. A. Galbraith was given a mortgage to secure a note for $2,000, which was transferred to David Boyce, who brings the suit.

Common pleas court will convene on Wednesday at 10 o'clock for adjournment, and will not open again until Oct. 6. The full term of circuit court begins Sept. 25.

A Fake Ordinance.

The Crisis reporter saw Charles Berg in Attorney Marshall's office Saturday and imagined he was preparing an ordinance in the Bridgewater gas matter. Then he rushed down and the sheet told the people, under glaring headlines, that an ordinance had been prepared. Mr. Berg said today that he was there on private business and knew of no ordinance. The motto of the paper should be unreliability.

One of Each.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Buxton, a daughter.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. William Jennings, a son. This is the fifth son in Officer Jennings' family of five children.

Trial This Afternoon.

The case of James Petticoord versus Thomas Peirce where the plaintiff reprieved a meat cooler, is being tried in Squire Morley's court this afternoon.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Thomas Hayden spent Sunday in Pittsburgh.

—J. Manor spent Sunday in Parentum, Pa.

—Ed Neal went down the river on business this morning.

—William Ash is home after a visit of five weeks in Cincinnati.

—Mr. McCowan, of Cannelton, is visiting East End friends.

—J. E. McDonald went to Gallipolis this morning for a short visit.

—James Hackathorne, of East End, spent Sunday in Smith's Ferry.

—Thomas Arbuckle and wife have returned from a visit to the sea shore.

—Frank McCuen, of M. Brozka's, Second street, spent Sunday at his home in Braddock.

—T. J. Cunningham, of Pittsburgh, has returned home after a visit in this city and Wellsville.

—Miss Clara Williams and sister, Miss Pearl, left at noon to spend a vacation in Pennsylvania.

—James McGonagle left this morning for Akron, where he has secured work in the china works.

—Mrs. Minnie Clegg and daughter, of Cleveland, are guests of Mrs. Clagg's brother, John Weaver.

—Expressman James Welch has returned from spending his summer vacation in the Clarkson mountains.

—Charles Blackmore, of Hookstown, formerly with J. R. Warner, is in the city today. He represents a Pittsburgh shoe house.

—Mrs. L. C. Jackman, Washington street, left this afternoon for an extended visit with relatives in Allegheny, and her home in Blairsville, Pa.

—Mrs. George Beggs, formerly of this city but now residing in East End, Pittsburgh, returned home Saturday after a visit with Mrs. William Pilgrim, Railroad street.

E. C. McVoy left for an eastern trip today, in the interest of the Specialty Glass company and Sebring Pottery company. He anticipates being absent for the next few weeks.

—George Peach and wife returned Saturday afternoon from Atlantic City. Mayor Gilbert is expected home today, but Mrs. Gilbert remains for a visit in Phoenixville, Pa. They are the last of the excursionists in the Elks' party from here.

An Entomologist In Town.

A prominent hotel man of East Liverpool is making a valuable collection of bugs, including every class but humbugs, not being desirous of adding the latter to the collection, as experience teaches him that they are a class to be greatly dreaded by landlords in general. Joking aside, the said landlord has secured some very rare specimens, as they fall from the electric burners, and has mounted them in a superb manner, attracting great attention from the lovers and patrons of the science. Some of the insects are pronounced very rare, one well-posted gentleman, commercial traveler for one of the leading potteries, declaring that the class is extinct, the present one secured being the only one known to scientists in this country. A very liberal offer in gold has been refused for the specimen in question.

Another Lie Nailed.

The attempt of the alley sheet to screen itself behind the board of health regarding the Diamond well water analysis, is denounced by members of the board. They are a unit in saying that nothing was said against the NEWS REVIEW, and that the statement of the Democratic organ is a deliberate lie. Doctor Ogden first analyzed the water, and it was his statement of it being unhealthy that the NEWS REVIEW gave.

Married in Lawrenceville.

The Pittsburg Press says: "Among the many marriages of this week was that of David A. De Vine, a young business man of East Liverpool, O., formerly of this city, to Miss Louise Van Warner, at St. Augustine's church, Lawrenceville."

Mr. De Vine is the well known partner of Mr. Morrow, Sixth street, while his handsome bride is a popular society lady of Pittsburgh.

The Merchants' Picnic.

The promised movement for a merchants' picnic has never taken form, although a number of business men have expressed themselves in favor of the plan. One of the leaders suggested today that the business men might take a day when the Brotherhood and other unions in town celebrate if they can not have one to themselves.

The Rev. Dr. Marshall Coming.

The announcement was made at evening services in the First Presbyterian church on Sunday that Doctor and Mrs. Marshall, of Des Moines, would arrive in the city the latter part of the week, and the reverend gentleman would occupy the pulpit at one service next Sunday.

For Sale.

A first-class high-grade ladies' bicycle, in excellent condition, at a bargain. Call on Dr. L. C. Jackman.

Want an Officer.

Parties residing on the Lisbon road think a visit from an officer of the Humane society would be the right thing. The claim that a teamster who abuses his horses by not feeding them and by brutally whipping them has attracted their attention, and they want him prosecuted.

Going and Coming.

Jerome Vess moved with his family from this city to Bellaire this morning.

Jerome Stanley had his household effects shipped to Akron today.

James Dunkerly, of Toronto, has moved here and will go into business.

A Characteristic.

A marked characteristic of East Liverpool is the small amount of trashy literature sold in the city. A stationer and bookseller said last night that less five and ten cent novels were sold here than in any town of its population on earth.

In New Quarters.

F. V. Risinger will vacate his present bicycle quarters in the Brindley block during the present week, and will occupy quarters in the rear of the present establishment, where he will be glad to attend to the wants of the public.

Travelers Going Out.

James Shaw left this morning for an eastern trip, and will sell the ware of the East End pottery.

Mr. Stubbs, of the Dresden, started on an eastern trip for that concern today.

Mrs. Coulson's Future.

Mrs. Coulson, who has long operated the saloon on the Horn switch, has decided to locate in some other part of the city. The bar fixtures were booked for sale this morning, but it didn't come off.

No Danger Now.

Doctor Clark has received late word from Pittsburgh which says that Miss Nessley is now out of danger, and will be able to leave the hospital sooner than was expected.

Broke Camp Today.

The Take-a-Rest Camping club broke camp at Line Island today, and are now at home in this city. They have had a good time, and will try it again next year.

A Big Man Coming.

Rev. W. A. Hibelow, presiding elder, will preach at Ferguson & Hill hall tonight and tomorrow evening to the new United Brethren congregation.

Among the Sick.

The little daughter of William Pilgrim, of the wharfbait, is seriously ill with spinal meningitis.

Lightning Hot Drops—What a Funny Name! Very True, but it Kills All Pain. Sold Everywhere. Every Day—Without Relief, There is No Pay!

How Jones Proposed.

Jones—Miss Arabella, do you like cabbage?
Arabella—What a strange question, Mr. Jones!
"I know it is a strange question, but please answer it."
"Yes, Mr. Jones, I am very fond of cabbage."
"Ah, I am glad to hear that!"
"Why?"
"Your liking cabbage goes to show that we were born for each other. I dote on corned beef. Why should not we unite our fortunes?"
"Oh, Mr. Jones!"
They will be married next week.—Boston Traveller.

Eloped Four Times.

RAHWAY, N. J., July 22.—Edward Adams has eloped from Rahway with Florence Manning, and they were married. This is the fourth time the couple has eloped. Adams is 17 years old, and Miss Manning is 16. The last time they eloped they were captured on a Jersey City ferryboat by Mr. Manning.

Macedonian Victories Denied.

VIENNA, July 22.—A dispatch to the Fremdenblatt from Sofia says that the reports circulated by the organs of the Macedonian revolutionary committee of insurgent victories are untrue. It is added that affairs in Macedonia are in a stationary condition.

Non-Union Miners Armed.

RICHMOND, July 22.—The operators of the coal mines near Pocahontas have armed the men who have taken the places of strikers with rifles. There will certainly be bloodshed if the men who quit work attempt to interfere with those who have their old places.

Canal Commissioners Return.

NEW YORK, July 22.—The United States steamer Montgomery, Commander Davis, has arrived with eight members of the Nicaragua canal commission on board.

Adolphus Wants to Rule Bulgaria.

LONDON, July 22.—It is stated that Prince Adolphus of Teck, who married the daughter of the Duke of Westminster, is a candidate for the throne of Bulgaria.

Burglars Escape Jail.

MILFORDTOWN, Pa., July 22.—Frank Evans and Joseph West, claiming to be respectively from Philadelphia and Chicago, who are charged with the Hertzler burglary at Port Royal, broke jail and have not been recaptured.

Ripans Tablets cure colic.

HOPING FOR A STIFF BREEZE.

Yachtsmen Want to See the Defender In Heavy Weather Today.

NEW YORK, July 22.—When the Vigilant meets the Defender over a triangular course of 30 miles outside of Sandy Hook today she will carry a larger club topsail than that under which she appeared Saturday. She will also have a bigger balloon jib topsail, and it is fair to presume that the sail area added by these changes will assist no little in sending the yacht through the water faster than she went Saturday. Believers in her ability to beat the new boat in light weather are, however, few in number, even though she carry additional canvas. Yachtsmen are hoping that today's event will take place in a stiff breeze, if not a blow, for nobody knows definitely what the Defender can do in a wind.

It is believed that she can at least equal Valkyrie III, which boat was plainly built for light weather. Mr. Iselin and Captain Haff have no fear of the result in a hard wind, but the public wants to know with certainty that the keel vessel is an all-around boat. If it could be possible to judge from Saturday's performance it might be said that she is all right, for in the breeze that did prevail the Defender stood up straighter than the Vigilant, and increased her lead in proportion to the strengthening of the wind, outstriking and outpointing the Gould boat.

Can't Extradite the Defaulters.

CHICAGO, July 22.—Chester W. Rowe, the defaulting cashier of Poweshiek county, Ia., is under arrest in the City of Mexico, and a large part of the $30,000 which he made away with has been attached by Pinkerton operatives and will likely be returned to the county from which it was taken. Richard Rowe, brother to the absconder, is also under arrest as an accomplice. It is somewhat doubtful, however, whether either of the brothers can be taken back to Iowa for their trial, as they have become Mexican citizens.

A $100,000 Fire In Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 22.—The fire which started in the building at 330 and 332 West Polk street, occupied by the National Linseed Oil company and the Wright & Lawther Oil and Lead works, was one of the most destructive with which the Chicago fire department has had to contend in many months. The main building was totally destroyed, and the loss will reach $100,000 on stock and machinery.

Still Harping on Eustis' Interview.

LONDON, July 22.—The alleged interview with United States Ambassador Eustis published by the Paris Figaro is still attracting attention. The Saturday Review says of it that it showed braggadocio first, then confidence, and then total forgetfulness. "Whether it was the bourbon or the Irish brand," The Review remarks, "evidently it was too strong for the ambassador."

The Strike Still On In Colon.

COLON, Colombia, July 22.—The strike of dock laborers still continues and the strikers are increasing their demands, but the steamships and the railroads still resist them. Laborers from Panama and the crews of the ships are discharging the cargoes. Order has been maintained throughout the dispute and the transit of freight is unimpeded.

Streetcar Robbed In Wichita.

WICHITA, Kan., July 22.—An electric streetcar has been held up by a lone highwayman on South Main street in sight of at least 50 people. Fred Miller of Kansas City, the only passenger, was compelled at the point of a pistol to give up all his money, $70, and the conductor was relieved of his gold watch and some small change. The robber ran through an alley and escaped.

A Cleveland Man Killed.

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., July 22.—Frank Kelly, aged 24 years, of Cleveland, has been killed while attempting to jump on a freight train of the West Shore railroad in the Yankee Hill cut in this city. He fell under the wheels and was crushed to death. He had been working here in a stone quarry.
